

Volunteer Opportunities

Welcome to the New York City Bar and thank you for your interest in volunteering with the City Bar Justice Center. Pro bono attorneys extend the Justice Center's capacity to assist more vulnerable New Yorkers with pressing legal problems.

The Justice Center has volunteer opportunities grouped into five subject areas listed below. Please see our website for further descriptions of our projects.

Due to the nature of our pro bono legal work, most opportunities require that volunteers be licensed to practice law in the United States, preferably in New York State. Intern opportunities for students and law graduates are posted on our website.

Please indicate below which project areas for which you would like to receive training notices:

- Economic Justice
- Family Justice
- Immigrant Justice
- Legal Hotline
- Public Service Network (both legal and non-legal volunteer opportunities for lawyers at other New York City nonprofits)
