1. Any other perks of working in your program? (e.g. great coffee, the most compelling clients, fun colleagues etc.)

The Bronx Defenders' office is a dynamic setting. Our office is an open and colorfully renovated banquet hall – a supportive and comfortable space for clients to work through daunting challenges. Clients walking through our doors to speak with their criminal and family defense attorneys are met with a staff of over 100 people: social workers, housing attorneys, employment attorneys, benefits specialists, investigators, community organizers, and parent advocates.

2. Is there any other information you would like us to have regarding potential fellowships in your organization?

The organization is full of young, smart people who balance their hard work with fun—whether it be through Bronx Defenders sponsored parties, heading to happy hour after work, or simply enjoying each other's company at the office. Because our practice is integrated, interns will have a great opportunity to learn about various disciplines through experienced attorneys who are always happy to pass on their knowledge.
