Membership Classifications/Fees

MEMBERSHIP FEES:

Membership dues are based upon earliest year of admission to any bar in any state or country and location of applicant's office. Fees for judicial members and those without an office are determined by their legal residence. Special dues rates may apply (see below). Applicants pay an Admission Fee which is a one-time payment equal to their first year's dues. The Admission Fee is waived in certain circumstances.

Nonresident members are billed annually payable May 1. Student members are billed annually payable September 1. All other members are billed semi-annually payable May 1 and November 1.

The Admission Fee is waived for anyone whose adjusted gross income is less than $80,000, and all judicial and academic applicants; applicants in public law offices or public service law offices; law students; those joining within six months of law school graduation and prior to admission; and former members.

* Special Rates: applicants and members admitted prior to 2003 and whose adjusted gross income is less than $80,000 per year may pay $147.50 semi-annually.

Sustaining Members voluntarily pay $650 annually to support the New York City Bar's public policy and pro bono activities.

For those who have special circumstances that make it difficult to join or maintain their membership, please contact the Membership Office at 212.382.6665 or membership@nycbar.org
